

Who to Notify When Someone Dies

As a helpful guide, you may need to notify some or all of the following people or organisations:

- Executor of Will
- Funeral Director
- Family and friends
- Minister of Religion
- Centrelink
- Veteran's Affairs
- Superannuation Company/ies
- Solicitor and/or public trustee
- Professional bodies ie solicitor, accountant
- Banks
- Credit card providers
- Land lord
- Building Societies
- Credit union
- Financial Institutions and loan companies
- Employer/former employer
- Trade Unions or professional associations
- Australian Tax Office
- Insurance
  - Life
  - Accident
  - Home and Contents
  - Vehicle
  - Ambulance
- Friendly Society
- Doctor, Specialist or Hospital
- Optometrist
- Dentist
- Chemist
- Department of Planning and Infrastructure – car registration and licences
- Electoral Office
- Medicare
- Health Benefits Funds
- Clubs, organisations and associations
- Church or religious organisation
- Household help, gardening services or Meals on Wheels
- Home Nursing Service
- Hearing Centre
- Home delivery services ie newspapers
- Home appliance rental
- Post Office for mail delivery
- Local Government for Rates, fire levy etc
- Telephone provider
- Electricity utility
- Gas utility
- School or college
- Companies ie directorships
- Chamber of Commerce
- Service organisations ie Rotary, Lions, Apex, Zonta, Red Cross
- Library
- Blood Bank
- Home Medical Aids rental company
- Veterinary Surgeon